

Bylaws of the Register of Professional Archaeologists

Preamble

These Bylaws are subject to, and governed by, the Illinois Non-Profit Corporation Act (the “Act”) and the Articles of IncorporationArticle 1 PurposeThe purpose of the Register of Professional Archaeologists (the “Register”). In the event of a conflict between the provisions of these Bylaws and the mandatory provisions of the Act, the Act will be controlling. In the event of a direct conflict between the provisions of the Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation of the Register, these Bylaws will be controlling. These Bylaws serve as the Policies of the Register; whereas, implementation of these policies shall be detailed in the Register procedures, which are to be approved by the Board as stated herein.

Article 1 Purpose

1.1 General. The purposes for which the Register is to be organized are as follows:

1.1.1 Organization. The Register is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the benefit of its members and the archaeological community within the meaning of Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “IRS Code”) or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

1.1.2 Purpose. The Register shall advance professionalism in the field of archaeology by:

a. Identifying archaeology as a profession and qualified archaeologists as professionals;

~~a. Encouraging high standards in the training of archaeologists;~~

b. Designating qualified archaeologists or other individuals in the archaeological community of the Register according to their appropriate category (“Registrants”). Categories of “Registrants” can be changed or amended from time to time by a vote of the Board of Directors. Only those Registrants registered as Professional Archaeologists (by whatever designation the Register employs) are entitled to vote on matters requiring the same pursuant to these Bylaws. All other members of the Register are non-voting members.

- ~~c. Establishing and encouraging high standards in the training of archaeologists;~~
 - ~~d. Establishing a published Code of Conduct for Registrants (the "Code") and Standards of Research Performance for Registrants (the "Standards");~~
 - ~~e. Encouraging high standards of performance for professional archaeologists by promoting conformance to a published Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance; Registrants;~~ of Directors ~~of the Register (the “Board”)~~.

~~Agreement to abide by may determine or as the Register Bylaws, the Code of Affairs of Conduct, and the Standards of Research Performance and to be subject to the Disciplinary Procedures of the Register. the Register may require from time to time.~~

b. ~~Payment of the applicable fees by deadlines established by the Board.~~

~~Section 2.2. Maintenance of Registration. Registration is maintained on an annual basis by payment of an annual registration fee established by the Board, on or before a date established by the Board.~~

~~Section 2.3. Reinstatement. Individuals who have let their registration lapse because of non-payment of fees may be reinstated in accordance with rules established by the Board.~~

~~Section 2.4. Rights of Registration. Any currently registered individual may refer to himself or herself as a "Registered Professional Archaeologist" and may use the abbreviation "RPA" to so signify. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, each RPA is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the RPAs. All RPAs will receive a copy of all official Register publications.~~

~~Section 2.5. Quorum. Twenty five percent of the RPAs entitled to vote on a matter shall constitute a quorum for consideration of such matter. If a quorum is present, then, except as otherwise expressly provided in these Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present and voted, in person or by proxy, shall be the act of the RPAs with respect to such matter.~~

~~Section 2.6. Maintenance of Published Register. A Directory of Registered Professional Archaeologists will be published annually, and a current list of RPAs will be maintained at all times by the Register.~~

~~Section 2.7 Voluntary Termination. Voluntary termination of registration shall be by resignation or nonpayment of fees. The date of resignation shall be that of the date of receipt by the Secretary Treasurer of a written letter of resignation. Voluntary termination shall also occur if current registration fees are not received by the Secretary Treasurer in accordance with rules established by the Board.~~

~~Section 2.8 Disciplinary Action. The Register may, under conditions and procedures specified in the Disciplinary Procedures of the Register, admonish or censure an RPA or may suspend or terminate the registration of an RPA. Any RPA who voluntarily terminates registration after the date of receipt of written notification from the Grievance Coordinator of a pending investigation of charges against the RPA remains subject to all provisions of the Disciplinary Procedures of the Register through final conclusion of the review and resultant action, if any, on such charges by the Grievance Coordinator and, if appropriate, by the Standards Board.~~

~~Section 2.9 Appeal. Any individual denied registration by the Registrar may appeal that decision to the Standards Board, whose decision shall be final.~~

Article 3

Board of Directors

Section

~~3.1-~~ General Powers. The Board shall manage the affairs of the Register and shall have the full authority permitted by law.

~~Section 3.2. Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. The Board shall consist of Officers and Directors. The Officers shall be the President, President-Elect, and Secretary-Treasurer.~~

~~The number of Directors shall be equal to the number of Sponsoring Organizations, with each providing one Director. Officers and Directors shall be RPAs. The Registrar~~3.1.1 General Powers and Responsibilities. The Register shall be governed by a Board of Directors (the "Board"), which shall have all the rights, powers, privileges, and limitations of liability of directors of a nonprofit corporation organized under the Act. The Board shall establish policies through the bylaws, and review and approve procedures as further delineated in these Bylaws and directives as appropriate in consideration of Section 3.13, governing the business of the Register. The Board may delegate to the Executive Director or Committee Chairs, subject to the provision of these Bylaws and the Act, authority, and responsibility to implement those policies and directives. The Board members are required to act reasonably, prudently and in the best interests of the Register, to avoid negligence and fraud, and to avoid conflicts of interest. The Board shall review the Bylaws at a minimum of every five years to determine if updates or clarifications are needed.

~~3.2~~3.2 Number, Representation, and Qualifications. The Board shall consist of at least eight (8) members, who must also be Registrants. The number of Board members may be increased beyond 8 members or decreased to less than 8 members by the affirmative vote of all the then-serving Board of Directors without the need to revise these Bylaws.

Of those 8 members, four (4) are allocated to represent the Founding Organizations (Society for American Archaeology, American Anthropological Association, Society for Historical Archaeology, and American Institute of Archaeology), shall be subject to all the Bylaws herein, and shall be selected by the Founding Organization's governing body (hereinafter the "Founding Organization Board Members"). Each Founding Organization shall maintain an active agreement with the Register that outlines the relationship between the Register and the Founding Organization, or the Register shall suspend the Founding Organization's Board position until an active agreement is in place. If the Founding Organization's position is suspended, their vote on any matter would be an abstention. The Register shall consider active effort in good faith to renew or extend an agreement with a Founding Organization to satisfy this requirement.

The other Board Members include the President, President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Grievance Coordinator, and Registrar (hereinafter the Grievance Coordinator-Elect shall serve as voting members of the "Board).

~~Section 3.3. Officers. Each Officer shall hold office for two years or until a successor shall be duly elected. Members"). The President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the office of President. No Officer shall be eligible for consecutive re-election to Secretary and Treasurer positions may be held by the same position or to a position that~~

~~automatically succeeds to the same position. No person may hold more than one position at any one time. Terms of office of the President Elect and Secretary Treasurer shall be staggered so that the President Elect and Secretary Treasurer are not elected in the same year.~~

~~Section 3.4. Directors. Each Sponsoring Organization shall elect or appoint one RPA to a position as Director, for a three year term (see Section 8.2). Directors may serve additional terms at the discretion of the appropriate Sponsoring Organization. Terms of office of Directors shall be staggered to avoid replacement of all Directors in any given year.~~

~~Section 3.5. Vacancy. In the event of the absence, death, resignation, removal from office, or incapacity of the President, as determined by the Board, the duties of the office shall be assumed by the President Elect. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Secretary Treasurer, the President with the advice and consent of the Board shall have the power to make an interim appointment for the period of the vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President Elect, a special election shall be held to select a replacement. Vacancy of a Director shall be filled by the appropriate Sponsoring Organization.~~

~~Section 3.6. Meetings. An annual meeting of the Board shall be held at a time and location determined by the Board at their prior meeting. Special meetings of the Board may be held at the call of the President and may be conducted via teleconference or other electronic means. The President shall call a special meeting of the Board at any time upon the written demand of at least three Officers and/or Directors.~~

~~Section 3.7. Quorum. A quorum of the Board shall consist of a majority of voting members of the Board.~~

~~Section 3.8. Voting. Questions before the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast at any meeting or by electronic or mail ballot. In case of a tie vote the decision of the President shall be final.~~

Section 3.9. Removal.

- a. ~~— An Officer may be impeached for just cause as determined by at least a three quarters vote of a quorum of the Board. Removal of the impeached Officer requires two thirds of the votes of the RPAs present and voted, in person or by proxy.~~
- b. ~~— A Director may be removed at any time by the Sponsoring Organization which appointed such Director.~~

~~Section 3.10. Committees. The Board may appoint one or more committees which, to the extent specified by the Board, but subject to limitations imposed by law, may exercise the authority of the Board. Each such committee shall have two or more Officers or Directors, a majority of its membership shall be directors, and all such committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. The President may create and appoint persons to a commission, advisory committee or other body which may or may not have Officers or Directors as members, which body may not act on behalf of the Register or bind the Register to any action, but which may make recommendations to the President or the Board. Collectively, the Founding Organization Board Members and the Board Members shall be called the "Board" in these Bylaws.~~

3.3 Board Compensation. The Board shall receive no compensation other than reasonable expenses related solely to their responsibilities as Board members. However, provided the compensation structure complies with Section 8.7 of these Bylaws, nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed to preclude any Board Member from serving the organization in any other capacity and receiving compensation for services rendered.

~~3.4 Board~~

Registr

~~Section 4.1. Tenure and Qualification. A Registrar, who must be a RPA, will be elected to a two-year term by a vote of the RPAs and shall be a voting member of the Board. The Registrar shall be responsible for determining whether to approve applications for registration. The Registrar shall follow any procedures established by the Board.~~

~~Section 4.2. Registrar Advisory Committee. The Register may appoint a Registrar Advisory Committee to assist the Registrar in the process of reviewing the qualifications of applicants. The Committee will be composed of no more than three RPAs who will serve at the pleasure of the Registrar for a term not to exceed his or her own. The Registrar will serve as chair of the Registrar Advisory Committee.~~

~~Section 4.3. Removal. The Registrar may be impeached by written notification for just cause as determined by at least a three-quarters vote of a quorum of the Board. Removal of the impeached Registrar requires two-third of the votes of the RPAs present and voted, in person or by proxy.~~

~~Section 4.4. Vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Registrar, the~~

~~position will be filled for the remainder of the term by appointment of the Board.~~

~~Article 5~~ Grievance

Coordinator

~~Section 5.1. Powers. The Grievance Coordinator shall have responsibility for handling allegations of violations of the Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance of the Register, in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures of the Register in effect from time to time.~~

~~Section 5.2. Tenure and Qualifications. The Grievance Coordinator shall be a RPA and shall hold office for a term of two years. The Grievance Coordinator Elect shall automatically succeed to the office of Grievance Coordinator at the end of the Grievance Coordinator's term of office. The Grievance Coordinator shall be a voting member of the Board.~~

~~Section 5.3. Removal. The Grievance Coordinator may be impeached for just cause as determined by at least a three-quarters vote of a quorum of the Board. Removal of the impeached Grievance Coordinator requires two-thirds of the votes of the RPAs present and voted, in person or by proxy.~~

~~Section 5.4. Vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Grievance Coordinator, the Board shall have the power to make an interim appointment for the period of the vacancy.~~

~~Article 6~~

~~Grievance Coordinator-~~

~~Elect~~

~~Section 6.1. General Powers. A Grievance Coordinator Elect shall be elected from among the RPAs every two years for a two year term of office. At the conclusion of this term the Grievance Coordinator Elect will succeed to a two year term as Grievance Coordinator. The Grievance Coordinator Elect will assist the Grievance Coordinator in handling allegations of violations of the Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance of the Register. In the event that the Grievance Coordinator requests recusal from a particular case due to a conflict of interest, the Grievance Coordinator Elect will be assigned responsibility for that particular case by the Board. In the event that both the Grievance Coordinator and the Grievance Coordinator Elect must seek recusal from the same case, the Board will appoint a member of the Board or a former Grievance Coordinator as an interim Grievance Coordinator to handle the case. The Grievance Coordinator Elect shall be a voting member of the Board.~~

~~Section 6.2. Removal. The Grievance Coordinator Elect may be impeached for just cause as determined by at least a three-quarters vote of a quorum of the full Board. Removal of the impeached Grievance Coordinator Elect requires two-thirds of the votes of the RPAs present and voted, in person or by proxy.~~

~~Section 6.3. Vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Grievance Coordinator-Elect, the Board shall have the power to make an interim appointment for the period of the vacancy.~~

Article 7

Standards

Board

~~Section 7.1. General Powers. The Standards Board shall hear and decide on all appeals from decisions of the Registrar. In accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures of the Register, the Standards Board shall make final decisions regarding disciplinary action resulting from complaints of violations of the Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance that are referred to the Standards Board by the Grievance Coordinator or any person acting in place of the Grievance Coordinator pursuant to these Bylaws.~~

~~Section 7.2. Number, Tenure, and Qualifications.~~ The Standards Board shall consist of three RPAs plus a First, Second, and Third Alternate, all of whom must be RPAs. One Standards Board Member and one Alternate shall be elected by a ballot of RPAs each year, and each shall hold office for three years or until a successor shall be duly elected. The Standards Board member with the longest tenure shall serve as Chair of the Standards Board. A Standards Board Member or Alternate actively involved in a grievance case or appeal at the time of the election of a successor shall remain a member of the Standards Board with respect to each such grievance case or appeal until final disposition. The newly elected Standards Board Members and Alternates shall assume all other duties of the position.

~~Section 7.3. Conflict of Interest.~~ Any Standards Board member perceiving himself or herself, or declared by the Board or by the Standards Board, to have a conflict of interest in a given case to be heard before the Standards Board shall withdraw from the proceedings.

~~Section 7.4. Meetings.~~ The Standards Board, when convened, shall consist of the three Members, or Members and Alternates, to make up a quorum of three.

~~Section 7.5. Removal.~~ A Standards Board Member or Alternate may be impeached for just cause by at least a three-quarters vote of a quorum of the Board. Removal of an impeached Standards Board Member or Alternate requires two-thirds of the votes of the RPAs present and voted, in person or by proxy.

~~Section 7.6. Vacancy.~~ In the event of the absence, death, resignation, withdrawal, removal, or incapacity of a Member of the Standards Board, the First Alternate, Second Alternate, and Third Alternate, singly and successively, in the order designated, shall fill such vacancy until the vacancy is filled.

~~Section 7.7. Code of Conduct and Standards of Research Performance.~~ The Register shall maintain a written Code of Conduct and written Standards of Research Performance. These shall be adopted, and may be amended from time to time by the Board.

9 Elections

~~Section 9.1. Nominating Committee.~~ The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates for ~~Officers, Registrar, Grievance Coordinator Elect, Standards Board and Alternates, and the Nominating Committee.~~ The Nominating Committee shall consist of three RPAs. The chair and one at-large member of the Nominating Committee shall be elected by the RPAs in the annual election. The third member shall be appointed by the President. ~~The Secretary-Treasurer,~~ the Board Members. The Secretary shall certify to the Board that all individuals nominated are ~~RPAs~~ Registrants in good standing and shall obtain a signed statement from all individuals nominated that if elected they agree to serve for their term of office before any Registrant can be added to the official ballot.

~~Section 9.2. Voting.~~ Each ~~Officer, Registrar, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator-Elect, Standards~~ available Board Member and Alternate, and each member of the ~~Nominating Committee~~ Members' position shall be voted on separately, with each ~~RPA~~ Registrant entitled to one vote for each position in each election. In September of each year a list of Board Members' candidates and a ballot shall be distributed to each ~~RPA~~ Registrant entitled to vote. Ballots must be returned to the Secretary ~~Treasurer~~ prior to a date specified, which shall not be less than 30 days from the date when the ballots are distributed to the ~~RPAs.~~ Registrants entitled to vote. The Secretary ~~Treasurer~~ shall appoint tellers to aid in tabulating the vote. ~~The Secretary-Treasurer~~ shall certify the vote to the Board: no later than the final Board meeting of any fiscal year. A tie vote shall be broken by the President of the Board.

Founding Organization Board Members are not elected by the Registrants and are designated by the Founding Organizations in accordance with Section 3.2.

3.5 Term of Board. Founding Organization Board Member terms are established by each Founding Organization.

All other Board Members shall serve two-year staggered terms with two Board Members being replaced every two years. The Board shall implement these staggered terms at the next Board meeting after the vote to adopt these Bylaws is certified. No Board member, excluding Founding Organization Board members, shall serve more than two consecutive terms in the same role unless two years have passed since the conclusion of such Board member's service or in the case of a unanimous Board vote to allow the incumbent to run for another two-year term.

- 3.6 Vacancies. Vacant Board seats may be filled by a majority vote of the Board at a Board meeting at which a quorum is present. Founding Organization Board Member vacancies may be filled as prescribed by the Founding Organization. A Board member selected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of their predecessor in office.
- 3.7 Resignation. Each Board member shall have the right to resign at any time upon written notice thereof to the President. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof, and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
- 3.8 Removal. A Board member may be removed for failure to attend more than three (3) consecutive duly constituted Board meetings, or for non-compliance with a published Register Board Code of Conduct, or for failure to perform the duties as assigned or defined in these Bylaws or its implementing procedures. Removal may occur at any duly constituted meeting of the Board by the affirmative vote of all but the Board members in question of the then-serving Board members if a quorum is present. The process for removal shall be provided in the Register Procedures.
- 3.9 Meetings. The Board's regular meetings may be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the President. The President or any three Board members may call a special meeting of the Board on seven days' notice to each Board member. Notice shall be served to each Board member via email. Board meetings and any special meetings may be held in-person, via teleconference, via an online meeting platform, or a hybrid option.
- 3.10 Minutes. At meetings of the Board, an agenda shall be created and approved by the Board prior to commencement of any other business of the Board. In the event the Secretary is unavailable, the President shall appoint a person to function as Secretary at each meeting. The Secretary, or the person appointed to function as Secretary, shall prepare minutes of the meetings which shall be delivered to the Register, and upon approval of the Board, be placed in the minute books of the Register.
- 3.11 Action by Written Consent. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the Board, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Board, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing setting forth the action to be taken shall be signed by all Board members. Such consent shall be placed in the minute book of the Register and shall have the same force and effect as a vote of the Board taken at an actual meeting. The Board members' written consent may be executed in multiple counterparts or copies, each of which shall be deemed an original for all purposes. In addition, facsimile, digital or electronic signatures or other electronic “consent click” acknowledgements shall be effective as original signatures.

3.12 Quorum. In order to conduct/transact business, there must be a minimum of 51% of the current Board members present. If at any time the Board consists of an even number of members and a vote results in a tie, the vote of the President shall be the deciding vote. Any vote taken shall be approved if a majority of the present Board members approve it, unless otherwise stated herein.

3.13 Limits of Authority. In protecting the interest of the members and the Register, the Board has established the following divisions of power and authority.

3.13.1 President, President Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer, without Board Approval. The Executive Committee (composed of the President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer) may make independent decisions without Board Approval for:

- Expenditures of funds that are specified within a Board approved budget;
- Communication of Register news and updates via social, electronic, or printed media; and
- Maintaining the daily operations of the Register’s business office.

3.13.2 Executive Committee with Board Approval. The Executive Committee may recommend action with the approval of the majority of the present Board members for:

- Expenditures of funds that are not specified within a Board approved budget or that exceed the previously approved budget;
- Removal or appointment of any elected officer or committee, council chair, or coordinator;
- Removal of any Board member from the Board of Directors;
- Appointment of any Board member to the Board of Directors to fill vacancies in accordance with Section 3.6 of the Bylaws; and
- Execution of contracts for labor, goods, or services that are not within an approved budget.

3.13.3 Executive Committee and Board Approval, with Majority of Non-Board Voting Members. Actions that require a majority vote of the non-Board voting members include:

- Amendments to Bylaws;
- Amendments to the Codes and Standards; and
- Elections of officers, committee or council chairs, or coordinators.

Article 4

Officers and Duties

- 4.1 Officers and Duties. The voting members of the Register shall elect officers of the Register which shall include a President, a President Elect, a Secretary, and a Treasurer (the Secretary and Treasurer positions may be held by the same person simultaneously).
- 4.2 President. The President shall preside at meetings and have the power to call meetings. The President shall be responsible for leadership of the Board in discharging its powers and duties and shall, in general, supervise and control all the business and affairs of the Register, not otherwise delegated to the Executive Director by Board approval. The President may sign contracts or other instruments on the Register's behalf. The President, at the direction of the Board, shall direct the Executive Director.
- 4.3 President Elect. The President Elect shall have all powers and duties of the President during the President's absence, disability, or disqualification, or during any vacancy in the position of the President, and such other powers or duties assigned by the President, the Board, or the Bylaws. The President Elect, barring removal from the Board during the President Elect term, shall automatically serve as the President, during the next Board cycle.
- 4.4 Secretary. The Secretary shall: (a) cause the minutes of all Board and Executive Committee meetings and proceedings to be recorded; (b) certify the accuracy of such minutes; (c) cause notice of all meetings to be given; (d) attest the signatures of Register's officer and Board members as required; (e) sign correspondence on behalf of the Board; and (f) have all other powers assigned by the Board, the President, or these Bylaws.
- 4.5 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have access to records of all receipts, disbursements, assets, and liabilities of the Register and shall report to the Board on the condition of such records and financial condition of the Register at least quarterly. Prior to the beginning of the fiscal year, the Treasurer shall cause a proposed operating budget and capital expenditure budget to be presented to the Board for approval. The Treasurer shall cause to be prepared and submitted to the Board a financial statement showing the Register's financial position at the close of the fiscal year. The Treasurer shall cause a firm of outside certified public accountants to audit the organization's books and records at the end of each fiscal year and prepare requisite tax forms for Treasurer review and approval two weeks before the date taxes are due. A statement summarizing the findings of the audit and tax preparation shall be submitted to the Board for review no more than one month after these events are completed.

Councils and Duties

5.1 Councils. Councils are decision-making bodies of the Register that report to the Board. The Board shall maintain the Grievance Council and Registration Council.

5.2 Rules. Each council shall adopt policies and procedures for its own governance consistent with these Bylaws, which shall be approved by the Board and reviewed to determine if updates are required by the Council each fiscal year.

5.2.1 Grievance Council. The Grievance Council shall be responsible for handling allegations of violations of the published Register Code and Standards in accordance with the Grievance Council Procedures, annually reviewing the Grievance Council Procedures to determine if updates are required, and other responsibilities as directed or approved by the Board.

The Grievance Council shall be chaired by the elected Grievance Coordinator. The composition and terms of the Grievance Council members and specific procedures to address allegations of violations of the Code of Conduct are addressed in the Register Procedures.

5.2.1.1 Grievance Coordinator Duties. The Grievance Coordinator shall be responsible for chairing the Grievance Council and ensuring allegations of violations of the codes of conduct of the Register are addressed in accordance with the Grievance Council Procedures. The Grievance Coordinator Elect shall assist the Grievance Coordinator in fulling these responsibilities.

5.2.2 Registration Council. The Registration Council shall be responsible for reviewing applications to determine whether to approve each application for registration.

The Registration Council shall be chaired by the elected Registrar. The composition and terms of the Registration Council members and specific procedures to review applications to determine whether to approve each application for registration are presented in the Register Procedures.

5.2.2.1 Registrar Duties. The Registrar shall be responsible for chairing the Registration Council and ensuring applications for registration are reviewed and addressed in accordance with the Registration Council Procedures.

5.3 Quorum. The quorum required for any Council to act must be specified in the individual Council's policies and procedures and approved by the Board.

Article 6
Standing Committees

- 6.1 Committees and Committee Chairs. The President may designate and appoint Standing Committees of the Board and Chairs of such committees, subject to the approval of the Board. The other members of the Committees shall be selected and maintained as prescribed by the specific Committee Procedures sections of the Register Procedures, which shall require Board approval prior to implementation. Current Standing Committees are: Ethics, Nominating, Outreach, and Professional Development.
- 6.1.1 Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee shall be responsible for the oversight and management of Register programs relating to promoting professional ethics, so that individual professional archaeologists can feel enabled and supported in making ethical decisions and in working professionally and ethically; and advise the Board in matters of professional ethics in archaeology.
- 6.1.2 Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall be responsible for producing a slate of pre-qualified individuals for the Board and/or Council positions and elections as needed and as prescribed by the Board.
- 6.1.3 Outreach Committee. The Outreach Committee shall support and promote the professional archaeological community through clear, consistent, and collaborative communication.
- 6.1.4 Professional Development Committee. The Professional Development Committee shall be responsible to facilitate training for Registrants that provides the skills and knowledge required in the professional workforce. The Professional Development Committee may fulfill these duties through the Field Schools Subcommittee, Continuing Education Subcommittee, and the Professional Pathways Subcommittee.
- 6.2 Rules. Each committee shall adopt policies and procedures for its own governance consistent with these Bylaws or with rules adopted by the Board or provided in the resolution creating the committee. Further, the policies and procedures of each committee must be approved by the Board prior to implementation.

Article 7

Ad-Hoc Committees

- 7.1 Appointment. The President may appoint Ad-Hoc Committees in the form of Task Forces or Advisory Groups for purposes and durations as appropriate. The President shall develop a purpose statement, schedule, and action plan for approval by the Board prior to implementation. A Task Force or Advisory Group shall be terminated upon completion of their purpose as determined by the Board's adopted purpose, schedule, and action plan.

7.2 Quorum. The quorum required for any Ad-Hoc Committee to act shall be specified by the directive from the President.

~~Register and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to, the best interests of the Register with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, or had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.~~

- ~~b. — The Register shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Register to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Officer, Director, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator Elect or an interim Grievance Coordinator, member of the Standards Board, committee member, employee or agent of the Register, or is or was serving at the request of the Register as an Officer, Director, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator Elect or an interim Grievance Coordinator, member of the Standards Board, committee member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, association, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Register, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Register, unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.~~

~~Section 10.2. Condition. Any indemnification under Section 10.1 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Register only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the person is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 10.1. Such determination shall be made with respect to a person who holds the indemnified position at the time of the determination: (1) by the majority vote of Officers and Directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of the Board designated by a majority vote of the Board, even though less than a quorum, (3) if there are no such Officers or Directors, or if the Officers and Directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the RPAs.~~

~~Section 10.3. Interim Payments. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Officer, Director, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator Elect, interim Grievance Coordinator, member of the Standards Board or committee member in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Register in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by the Board in the specific case,~~

~~upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to be indemnified to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Register as authorized in this Article. Such expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by former Officers, Directors, Grievance coordinators, Grievance Coordinators Elect, interim Grievance Coordinators, members of the Standards Board, committee members or other employees and agents may be so paid on such terms and conditions, if any, as the Register deems appropriate.~~

~~Section 10.4. Non-Exclusivity. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by law, agreement, vote of RPAs or disinterested Officers and Directors, or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to hold such office or serve in such and administrators of such person.~~

~~Section 10.5. Insurance. The Register may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was an Officer, Director, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator Elect or an interim Grievance Coordinator, member of the Standards Board, committee member, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the Register as a Director, Officer, committee member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Register would be obligated to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.~~

~~Section 10.6. Report. If the Register indemnifies or advances expenses under Subsection 10.1b above to an Officer, Director, Grievance Coordinator, Grievance Coordinator Elect, the Register shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the RPAs and Sponsoring Organizations with or before the notice of the next meeting of RPAs.~~
