CENSURE NOTICE
DR. ROBERT L. SCHUYLER

In accordance with the Register of Professional Archaeologists (Register) Disciplinary Procedures, it is hereby noted that Robert L. Schuyler, RPA, on March 24, 2021, formally accepted censure for violating the Register Code of Conduct.

A Grievance Committee has determined that Dr. Schuyler, by directing a Nazi gesture and rhetoric towards a colleague at a professional conference, violated the Code of Conduct, which in its preamble states that “an archaeologist shall not engage in sexual, gender, and any other form of harassment or violence (including verbal, symbolic, or physical) against any colleague, student, employee, employer, sponsor, or member of the public in the conduct of archaeological practice.” The Committee has found that Dr. Schuyler’s conduct amounted to symbolic harassment or violence, and therefore warranted a finding of censure.

On March 24, 2021, Dr. Schuyler accepted censure for violating a provision of the Code of Conduct, as detailed in the Censure Notice posted on the Register Grievance page
